Editorial Focus

First and foremost, Cruising Magazine's editorial mission is to provide the local automotive enthusiast with a comprehensive events guide. We include all types of car events as well as club events. We also strive to bring you entertaining articles from local experts on everything from current cruising trends to technical advice. Finally, we want to spotlight our readers and area automobile enthusiasts with feature articles and photo galleries.

Distribution

There are 16,000 copies of Cruising Magazine produced each issue. The publication is distributed via home delivery or at more than 280 distribution locations in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, including custom auto shops, restaurants, repair shops, and retail stores. Cruising Magazine is also distributed directly to automobile enthusiasts at major shows and events in the area. Our distribution list continues to grow; please check the website for a complete list.

Audience

There are more than 375 automobile clubs within the four-state area (DE, MD, NJ, PA) representing approximately 20,500 members. These clubs help conduct more than 1,450 shows, cruises and special events per year, resulting in a cumulative audience that exceeds 680,000. More than 60% of readers of automobile publications retain each issue for future reference and 86% take action as a result of reading (attend an event, make a purchase, look for more information).
